It is located just southwest of the ancient city of Martyropolis, in south-eastern Ararat Province. History Seltegin is believed to have been an important settlement in the 8th and 9th centuries, when it was part of the Armenian Kingdom of Vaspurakan. In the 13th century, Seltegin had turned into a fortress with a population of about 2,000-2,500 and was under the control of the powerful Genoese and Pisan families. In 1249, Seltegin was conquered by the Mongolian Empire. In the 14th century, Seltegin was captured by the Turko-Mongols and remained under their control until the mid-15th century. During the late 14th and early 15th century, Seltegin was administered
